

Purnima Voria is the Founder/CEO of the National US INDIA Chamber of Commerce whose mission is to build bilateral trade through business relationships. She is the member of 2006 Presidential Business Club. (George W. Bush) She is recently Appointed to 2005 Presidential Business Commission (George W. Bush). She is also the Honorary Chairman for the National Republican Congressional Business Advisory Council featured in Wall Street Journal as 2005 BUSINESS WOMAN OF THE YEAR. She is Honored in National Register's WHO's WHO In Executives and Professionals. Ms Voria is recognized by the National Republican Congressional Committee as the Local Business Leader to Receive 2005 Ronald Reagan Republican Gold Medal. Ms. Voria is also chosen as a 2006 Congressional Medal of Distinction winner for outstanding leadership in Business and contributions to the US Economy. National US India Chamber of Commerce got a letter on Sept. 19th 2005 from the Indian Prime Minister Man Mohan Singh's office from Mr. T.K.A Nair in support of the chamber's effort to promote Indo-US Relations and Business opportunities. With a stellar community service record, she is a prototype example of the person willing to devote her time and energy to the betterment of our community and have been affiliated with several organizations locally, nationally and internationally as an Ambassador for Peace IIWPF, United Nations Association of USA, Governor Owen's Asian Advisory Council, Mayor Hickenlooper's Asian Advisory Council, Chamber of Americas, Asian Chamber of Commerce, India Association of Colorado, Sister Cities International, Tie Rockies Association, Welcome to Colorado International Club to name a few. She has been featured in international magazines and had several live Television appearances.